

RAGHUPAL – BSU LQ

Features

Raghupal BSU Liquid is a Hexa sulfo - type Fluorescent Whitening agent (FWA) for paper. It has a broad spectrum of application, good general properties and is largely unaffected by PH.

Properties

Chemical Constitution	-	Stilbene Disulphonic Acid derivative
Ionic Nature	-	Anionic
Appearance	-	Clear Yellowish coloured Liquid.
Shade	-	Bluish to neutral white

Stability :-

	In the liquid	on the fibre
Acid	- Good	Good
Alkalis	- Good	Good
Hard Water	- Good	Good

Storage Stability

Raghupal BSU Liquid is shows a high level of stability in storage and at Room Temperature prolonged storage in temperature below 0°C can result in product freezing. Frozen product can be restored to its original state without loss of effectiveness by leaving to stand at Room Temperature OR heating briefly to temperature no higher than 60°C.

Fastness properties

The products light fastness and stability to acid and alkalis are comparable to those of other Fluorescent Whitening Agents with the same chemical constitution.

Please contact us at contact@raghunathdyechem.com for more info on this product.